“KOLA WAKON OF WILDLIFE”

Roughly translated from the Lakota language means “Sacred Friend of Wildlife”.

This is what every Wildlife Rehabilitator, every person who rescues wildlife, everyone who transports, every person who calls for help and every Veterinarian that works with wildlife are to the wild kingdom.

December 8, 2011

TO: Veterinarians and All Hospital Staff, Animal Control Officers, Wildlife Rehabilitators & the Public

FROM: Pearl Beamer in partnership with Norfolk Botanical Garden

REFERENCE: “Born to Be Wild” Wildlife Conference

We would like to invite you all to attend the “Born to be Wild” Conference February 17-19, 2012 at Norfolk Botanical Gardens, Norfolk, Virginia.

Classes are being offered in a variety of subjects that will be appropriate for beginners and veteran “rehabbers”, Animal Control Officers plus the public.

Continuing Education credits will be given. You will go home with a certificate of attendance.

To all our supporters~ Thank you for helping us help the Native Wildlife.

Hope to see you all there,

Sincerely,
